

Bubble Map – Reasons for exploring

You are on board as part of the crew that was sent by Spain to explore the “New World” discuss the following things within your letter home.

- Describe your journey to the “New World” .
- Why are you headed to the new world?
- How are you contributing to the Columbian exchange?
- Who is benefiting the most from your explorations? What is this called?
- What do you find when you get to the “New World”

Postcard : Sentence Stems

1. I have landed in...
2. To get here we crossed the..
3. We are competing with...
4. I feel that my journey is..
5. The reasons we are going to the New World are...
6. The things we took with us are..
7. We are planning to take back...
8. The people getting the most money from this are..

Dear Family,

I am very excited to cross the Atlantic Ocean and discover the New World.

The Dutch crew are landing at a new settlement near the Hudson River. I will be business partners with the Native Americans trading fur. When I return, I will promise to bring back fur coats!
